

The Vogues 2021

From the mid 1960's into the 70's, "The Vogues" could be heard on radio stations coast to coast. They were also featured on the top television shows of the time like, The Ed Sullivan Show, The Tonight Show with Johnny Carson, The Mike Douglas Show, multiple times with Dick Clark's iconic American Bandstand, and many more.

The Vogues unique sound was instantly recognizable and became eternally memorable. Their first song to top the charts at #4 and capture hearts was You're The One, a million selling single in 1965.

Who can forget Five O'clock World? Not only was this a top 5 million selling single, but is still a request from fans at the shows today. Comedian, Drew Carey, selected Five O'clock World as the theme song for his very popular television sitcom. It was also featured in the movie, "Good Morning Vietnam" starring Robin Williams.

Veterans will remember these first two hits along with other million sellers featured regularly on Armed Forces Radio. You Are My Special Angel This song first hit the airwaves sung by Bobby Helms. In 1968, the Vogues recorded their version incorporating lush orchestration combined with their powerful vocal harmonies and made it even more unique.

Also in 1968, Turn Around Look at Me, another million selling hit single, took the world by storm. It too was an orchestral love ballad that established this new sound for the Vogues and firmly locked it in time. Volkswagen also used Turn Around, Look at Me for a very popular commercial as recent as 2019.

Other Vogues hits have been subtly included in multiple film and television sound tracks across the years. These and the many other hits are the foundation of the Vogues shows as they continue to tour today. They are headliners on the finest Oldies Rock 'n' Roll shows, concerts, and special productions like, the Happy Together Tour, the Malt Shop Memories Cruise, Stars of the Sixties shows, and a multitude of other events. The Vogues continue to delight audiences from coast to coast. Concert goers consistently say, "Their harmony is as strong as ever and the sound is exactly like the recordings we remember."

A dynamic combination of music, humor, and fun interaction, The Vogues show is seriously entertaining, but most of all, the timeless classic hit songs trigger fond memories in the minds of fans all over the world.

The Vogues, all very talented singers, present a performance that will truly have people talking for days and weeks to come. The memorable songs, the entertaining content, the humor; all these elements make The Vogues, most certainly, one of the world's top nostalgic vocal music shows.
