Bio

Barking dogs, wet sneakers, jets roaring, spine tingling scratches from a chalkboard, radio noises, guitars screaming, cell phones, and so much more! Noises, every noise you can imagine, but is it real or the vocal cords of Michael Winslow?

A master of vocal gymnastics, he can imitate over 1000 sound effects using his voice alone. Whether he is recreating the frenzy of Jimi Hendrix playing the guitar, or a StarWars battle reenactment, his talent is truly remarkable and his versatility admirable and enjoyable for all ages!

"Winslow's hilarious. His incredibly rare comedy skills still razor sharp, after all these years."

- Boston Globe

"Michael Winslow of Police Academy fame partnered with DJ Yoda to remind us all "the beat box rappers, they all came after me." Every sound is human voice — if Winslow really is human. We suspect he's part keyboard or something".

- The Chicagoist

One of the highest selling, greatest reviewed, most talked about comedy shows ever at Edinburgh Fringe Festival. Described as "unparalleled", "genuinely astounding", "should be on everyone's Bucket List" by reviewers.

"A hilarious whirlwind of staggering special effects, astounding sounds and extraordinary noises."

- Edinburgh News

"Winslow provides an energetic performance, and his own laughter is infectious. A great night full of laughs and an opportunity to see a true Hollywood legend."

- BackstagePass

"Who better to perform a history of videogame sound effects from Pong to Street Fighter to Portal than actor, comedian, and Police Academy legend Michael Winslow? The answer is nobody."

- G4
